Dear Applicant,

By applying to our university, you are taking a very important step toward gaining admission to a high-quality Economics programme. I applaud your decision for considering an M. Sc. in Economics from the Graduate School of Business Administration at Independent University, Bangladesh (IUB) which was established in the year 1993.

Why does an M. Sc. in Economics degree matter? Other factors such as grades, work experience, etc. can say something about who you are and what you have done in your career, an M. Sc. in Economics degree will give you an edge over others which will reflect in your professional field. Considerable effort has been put into the programme to ensure that the M. Sc. in Economics offers the right balance between the practical needs of today and the technical needs of the future. We have also worked towards ensuring a suitable blend of teaching methods: stressing both on conventional learning tools and active student involvement in the learning process. We believe the educational opportunity we offer is unique and we want YOU to be part of that.

The class environment is rich because of the various backgrounds of the students as well as professions they come from. The mode of teaching focuses on case studies which are in line with the events taking place in the practical world. The experienced faculty incorporates business concepts into classroom teaching through case studies, lectures, and small group activities.

In keeping with the University's mission, the campus provides excellent facilities to students and creates an environment which is conducive to learning. Some of its salient features include state-of-the art classrooms, computer labs, library, subscription to e-journals, and cafeteria to name a few.

The application package is inclusive of the following:
